June 29, 2025 – Saints Peter And Paul, Apostles

Friday, June 20th was the official start of the summer season. The cool, rainy weather of the spring is finally behind us. As a result, those in school are off for the summer with less structured days. Also, the days are longer, with sunshine well past 8:00 pm, which should provide more time to get outdoors after work.

The summer provides the opportunity to engage in many more outdoor activities like biking, camping, fishing, canoeing, boating, picnics, and evening walks with the dog. There are many more reasons to get outside and be more active after spending the winter and early spring indoors. Also, getting outdoors is a great way to unplug from the computer, Internet, social media, TV, or video games. So hopefully, you will find time to get away on a family vacation and spend some time away from your routine.

Going outdoors has always helped me reflect more on God's amazing creations outside the door. In addition, it allows us to focus on the simple things that often go unnoticed. I fondly remember a summer canoe trip on the Allegheny River, where the morning brought a light mist on the water with only the rippling water, a turtle popping its head up, and a wonderful chorus of bird songs.

If you work outside in farming or construction, your workday may be busier than in the fall, winter, or spring. But you can still enjoy the wonders of life created by God.

Here is a prayer from Xavier University that captures the joys of summer:

*Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.
Thank You for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.
Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.
Draw me closer to You this summer.
Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.*

Deacon Paul
